DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed January 5, 2000, fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each U.S. and foreign patent; each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein which was not retrievable by the examiner and thus has been cross out has not been considered.

It is recommended that the applicant provide the copies of the crossed out references and also provide a list (an IDS) of them.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 60-74 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fernandez-Holmann, U.S. Patent No. 5,787,404, in view of Fleming, U.S. Patent No. 5,953,710.

Fernandez-Holman discloses a computerized method for transferring funds to third parties in which the funds are deposited periodically and automatically (col. 2, lines 1-55; col. 7, lines 37-57).

Fernandez-Holmann seems to suggest a customer account file but does not clearly disclose one.

Fleming discloses a customer account file (col. 6, line 7, through col. 7, line 24).

To provide a means of record keeping, it would have been obvious to use a customer account file, as taught by Fleming, in the system of Fernandez-Holmann.

Fleming discloses the purchase of goods and/ or services.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 60-74 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-38 of U. S. Patent No. 6,044,360 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: periodically transferring funds to a third party customer account file.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.
